New Street, directly outside the Apple Store in Birmingham City Centre, is home to the City's second giant Christmas tree. The tree will be surrounded by stand out Elonex Digital Screens, and located on the roof of a Frankfurt Christmas Market stall to guarantee maximum visibility.

This prime location ticks all the boxes for brands wanting to make a big statement in the city centre during the run up to Christmas. New Street is the city's busiest pedestrian area and forms a major gateway to Birmingham's retail, business and gastro districts, and to all major Christmas attractions. Unmissable to all city centre visitors, maximum footfall is guaranteed here.
